Firework Shortage This Year

(kcentv.com) According to American Fireworks owner, Chester Davis, What is usually the busiest time of the year for firework shop owners might be a little slower during this year's holiday seasons. "If we had enough fireworks then I think it'd be the best fireworks season we've ever had in the history of Texas, but there's not enough fireworks to go around."

Davis has around 200 stands, 14 stores and two warehouses in Texas, so he knows the firework industry pretty well. But, in his 50 years of doing it, he's never seen anything like this.

"We're getting fireworks that were ordered over a year and a half ago so we're getting 2020 Christmas sales selling season fireworks that we didn't get last Christmas so, that's what we're getting now, we're not even into getting the things that we need for the Fourth of July," he explained.

Across the country fireworks are in short supply with many factors that are keeping the product from coming. One of the biggest: the lag in global shipping with no signs of turning around.

Not only is the supply troublesome this year, the products will also have a larger price tag on them.

"When you just look at the rise or raise in insurance prices and then you look at almost the triple the transportation cost, there is an increase, no question about it," said Davis.

Businesses are expecting to get 50% or less of their standard inventory, telling customers to not hesitate, and buy early.

Texas' retail fireworks selling season begins June 24 and ends at midnight on July 4.

"The things that you might be looking for that you would like to have, they're going to be available in the beginning may not be available at the end," Davis added.

Davis expects fireworks to be in short supply for at least another year or maybe longer.

Funeral/Death Notice

Tom Moseley, 53, died at his residence in Gatesville, Texas on June 3rd. He was born in Temple, Texas on October 20, 1967, to Sonny and Patsy (Goodson) Moseley. He remained in Coryell County all his life. Graduating from Gatesville High School in 1986, he then attended TSTC and became a Master Electrician, eventually starting his own Company, TM Electric. Tom attended Pearl Baptist Church as well as King Baptist Church. He loved spending time with his family and friends, cooking and having get-togethers. Tom had such a big heart, and he loved his family and friends with every bit of it.

Tom was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Horace and Dora Moseley and maternal grandparents, Gerald Max Goodson and Lola Goodson-Hixon, an uncle, Jerry Goodson and his wife, Lila Goodson, and another uncle, Alvin Berry.

Tom is survived by his mother, Patsy Stoneham and stepfather Henry Stoneham of Lampasas, his father, Sonny Moseley of Gatesville, his girlfriend Jennie Snelling of Copperas Cove, one daughter, Charliese Elizabeth Moseley-McGuffey of Lampasas, two sisters, Molley Moseley-Michell (Gibran) of Weatherford, Texas and Amy Moseley-Vann (Danny) of Lampasas, three grandchildren, Catelyn, Cylee, and Clara McGuffey, two aunts, Carla Moseley-Berry of Shiner, Texas and Mary Moseley-Chambers (Bob) of Waco, one uncle Ken Moseley (Judy) of Copperas Cove, numerous relatives, and literally too many friends to count.

The funeral for Mr. Moseley was on Sunday, June 6th, at Heritage Funeral Home in Lampasas, with visitation one hour prior, also at Heritage Funeral Home. Reverend Charles McKamie and Pastor David Booth officiated the service. Burial followed at Hillsdale Cemetery, east of Izoro, Texas.

There is a memorial scholarship fund set up in Tom's memory at National United Bank in Lampasas, Copperas Cove and Gatesville. This will be awarded to a graduating senior from Gatesville High School that will be attending TSTC pursuing a career as an Electrician.

Arrangements are entrusted to Heritage Funeral Home of Lampasas.
