Badger Sports

Right up front...we gotta' say,

Thank You, Coach Troy Rogers and staff!

Thank you for making Lampasas' sports program as good as it is. When Dave Campbell's Texas Football publication recognized Lampasas as the fastest-rising high school football program in Texas...we all sorta' already knew that. But it was nice to hear them say it.

But go beyond this, how about our basketball program, and track, and baseball and more. Watch them go into post-season playoffs too. The fact is, we have developed a really good all-around sports program here. Thanks to a good staff, helping some great young people develop in the best ways. Go Badgers!

Badger Basketball

As of Monday morning's release of the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches UIL Rankings, neither of the Badger basketball teams, Girls or Boys, made it into their top 25 in Texas 4A.

We did notice the Liberty Hill Boys team showed up in the number 5 slot. They have a 15-6 record.

In the Girls rankings, none of the District 6 teams, consisting of Lampasas, Salado, Taylor, Burnet, Liberty Hill and Eastside Memorial made it into the top 25.

Lady Badgers Basketball (20-5) lost to 5A Hutto 59-78 last Friday. The JV went 26-36 and the freshmen lost 22-47. Coach Myers has had the girls playing a lot of uphill battles against big-school teams, but they've been doing very well at it with their 20-5 record.

The girls play Del Valle (2-15), a 6A team, this evening at Del Valle. Coach Mark Myers girls look really good so far and the team records above (20-5 vs 2-15) look like they'd be favorites, except for the fact that Del Valle is 6A and has been playing some tough competition too.

So, this should be a good road game as the girls get ready for district, which starts Friday evening against Salado, in

Badger Gym.

Badger Boys Basketball (10-10) plays Canyon Lake in a Thursday 6:15pm game in Badger Gym. Canyon Lake is 11-10 so far. Coach Aaron Nuckles' Badgers have yet another non-district game coming up on Monday, the 13th, against Goldthwaite. After that, the district season for the Badgers will begin on the 17th at home against Taylor.

How does Coach Nuckles see the district this year? "Five good teams and only four playoff spots. We'll see how it goes."

As for the Badger team, "with a long football season in the playoffs and the football boys coming on to the team late, it's taking a little time to gel but we're getting' up to speed."

We'll have Coach Nuckles on the radio at 101.9FM on Friday mornings about 8am to talk Badger Basketball.

Wrestling Meet Here on Wednesday

Lampasas will host a tri-meet here for both boys and girls wrestling teams tomorrow.

Badger Soccer

Lady Badger Soccer will be at China Springs this evening at 6pm.

Badger Boys Soccer will be at home, hosting Copperas Cove at 5:30pm for JV, V at 7:30pm.
