Accident Closes 281 North

ACCIDENT

Highway 281 is closed about 4 miles south of Adamsville. Lampasas Radio heard earlier that traffic was being rerouted down FM 1690, but more recent reports indicate FM 1690 is blocked. The Adamsville VFD reports traffic backed up for miles. Please avoid the area.

Early this morning two 18 wheelers were traveling on 281 approximately 4 miles South of Adamsville near Patterson Creek. According to law enforcement at the scene, they hit a slick spot and crashed. One driver was unhurt and the other has been transported by ambulance.

Adamsville VFD reports at 10am that it will be a minimum of 4-5 hours before US 281 is clear. One of the semi trucks is in the Patterson Creek bed and extricating the rig is going to take some time.

Badger Basketball is also hosting Taylor on Friday with games starting at 5pm.

Soccer

Badger Varsity Soccer reports a great 3-0 win over Gatesville last night. This from Coach Race: "We came out playing some great balls, moving the ball with creativity and purpose. This paid off when Victor Castuita beat a man and had a classy finish to put us up 1-0. We kept pressing with some rocket shots from Cruz Lucio, but we were not able to put any more in this half. The second half we came out with conviction and pressed hard. We won the ball playing through the midfield and two minutes in Eyan Skiles put a great ball through to Robert LaMountain who used his speed and had a great one touch finish. Then eight minutes later we won a free kick in the corner and off a great cross, on his 18th birthday, Jose Alvarez hit Skiles to put us up 3-0. We had more opportunities, but we were not able to convert. Our defense of Scooter Cook, Ivan Woods, Kai Cartwright, and Corben Allen did a bang up job of keeping a clean sheet. As well, our goal keeper Gavin Robinson played very well and stopped a penalty kick with 2 minutes remaining in the match. It was a great team effort and will be a good foundation for going to the Canyon Lake Cup this weekend."

Badger Soccer heads to Canyon Lake tomorrow morning.

Badger JV Soccer has a tournament in Waco beginning tomorrow.

Lady Badger Soccer hosted Gatesville yesterday at Lampasas High School, and the ladies head to the Stephenville Tournament Friday.

Powerlifting

Badger Powerlifting has a meet at Lampasas High School this Thursday.
