Key Ave. Gets a Little Patchwork

TxDOT contractors were out doing a little spot sealing on Key Avenue on Thursday morning.

The work was just routine maintenance, meant to extend the useful life of the pavement, and it stretched from Hwy 183 at the south end of town to Hwy 281/183 at about the north end of the city's main drag.

County Commissioner's To Meet on Monday

Lampasas County Commissioner's Court will be in their regular 4th Monday session on Monday at 9am. After last week's worries over the Jail Project and the contractor walking off the site, we wondered if there were some developments.

According to County Judge Randy Hoyer, the contractor, Kreuger Construction, for whatever reason, just voluntarily defaulted on the job. They evidently defaulted on a few other jobs as well. Hoyer said the County received a copy of a letter to the bonding insurer, Travelers Insurance, stating that they were defaulting.

Now, Travelers will pay off the subcontractors what they are due, and Traveler's, according to the Judge, will select a new general contractor to come in and finish up the job. Hoyer says the County is going to be in a special meeting, either next Friday or the next Monday, with the insurance company and they will find out more about the process. He says they are now hoping the project will only be delayed for 3 or 4 months.

The agenda for this Monday's meeting appears pretty routine with

At Hancock Park Golf Course

by Mike Holland

Richard Stockman 72, of Lampasas, scored his fourth hole in one at Hancock Golf Course Thursday.

Stockman, playing with George Acker, Tim Griffin and Joe Bell, all from Lampasas, aced the number 8 - 118 yard par 3.

There are four par 4s on the 5,288 yard course and Richard has aced 3 of them now. He had a hole in one twice on number 6, a 116 yard hole.

Stockman advised that he has yet to get an ace on number 11, a 135 yard hole. All of this and most of us won't get a hole in one in our lifetime. We know that Richard is capable of making the sweep at any time.

Basketball

No freshmen basketball games today!

Word from Lampasas High coaches is that their opponent for the Friday games, Eastside, has no freshmen teams.

So-o, the schedule is adjusted a bit with the JV Girls and JV Boys teams playing at 5pm in the separate gyms, then the Varsity Girls play at 6:15 in the big gym, followed by the Varsity Boys in that gym, probably about 7:30pm.

The Lady Badgers Varsity Basketball team has had a disappointing district season so far, winning 1 and losing 3 so far. But, from what we can see around the district, it's going to be a pretty tight race. So far, Salado is the only undefeated team, though they just barely got out of the gym with the "W" when they played Lampasas. It was 52-49 and could have went either way.

After that Lampasas got humiliated 39-64 by Liberty Hill, so we figured LH is just that good.

In the next game, Lampasas had licked its wounds and beat Taylor soundly 62-21. Wait – that's the Taylor team that beat Burnet in game two. Meanwhile, Salado was playing Liberty Hill and beat them 62-48. ???

Get the picture? It's a pretty well matched district. Currently Salado is undefeated and at the top. After that it's Liberty Hill at 3-1, Taylor is 2-2, Burnet is 2-2 and Lampasas 3-1. Eastside is in the cellar with all losses.

Today, Lampasas plays Eastside; Salado plays Burnet, and Taylor plays Liberty Hill.

Next Tuesday the Lady Badgers get another crack at Salado on the road and on Friday they host Liberty Hill.

Badger Boys basketball (0-2) is still looking for a district win, and they will likely get it tonight against the weak Eastside team.

The district boys teams started later than the girls and only have two games under their belt. Burnet is 2-0, beating Lampasas and Eastside. Taylor is also 2-0, beating Salado and Lampasas. Salado is 1-1 beating Liberty Hill but losing to Taylor. Liberty Hill is 1-1 with a win over Eastside and the loss to Salado. Lampasas has the losses to both Burnet and Taylor. And, Eastside is in the cellar.

Tonight, Taylor and Liberty Hill meet in Panther gym and Burnet will play Salado at Salado.

Next week the Badgers will be on the road at Salado on Tuesday and at home with Liberty Hill Friday..
