The Weather

The High yesterday 57° The Morning Low 42°

Today: Mostly cloudy this morning then gradual clearing with a high near 69°. Winds will be SW at 10-15 mph. A low is expected to move through today bringing a cold front and a sharp wind shift to the N-NW with winds at 15-20mph in the afternoon, with possible gusts of 30 mph.

Tonight: Mostly clear and a low around 33° the strong N-NW wind will become light in the overnight. The light winds and dry airmass will allow for the cool overnight temperatures.

Sunday: Sunny, with a high near 68° and S wind at 10-15 mph gusting to 20 mph.

Overnight Sunday: A low near 44° and the S winds continue.

Next Week: After a warm Monday, the first of a series of cold fronts is expected Monday night into Tuesday. The forecasters say from Tuesday on depends on where a cold front stalls. There are 2 scenarios; one where Arctic air moves into our forecast area and sets up the possibility of freezing rain and sleet across much of the area Wednesday evening through Thursday. The other scenario would keep the Arctic air north and cause the surface boundary to move north and south across our forecast area providing more rain chances and storm potential. (The forecasters are leaning to the colder forecast at this time).

Mason County Courthouse Arsonist Captured

According to various news reports from dailytrib in Burnet County and KCEN in Waco, Mason Volunteer Firefighters were called to a house fire at about 10:15pm. A dispatcher for the county saw flames shooting out of the top of the Mason County Courthouse a short time later.

According to reports, the house on Rand St. belonged to the suspect's uncle. (Suspect Nicholas Jarret Miller, right).

According to DPS, a Georgetown Police officer tried to stop the Ford F-350 the suspect was driving on I-35. The truck fled, and DPS took over the pursuit in Jarrell.

KNEL Radio out of Brady reports that throughout most of the pursuit on I-35, the suspect, Nicholas Miller, was on Facebook Live describing the chase, complaining about his personal life and relationship and disparaging law enforcement.

During the pursuit, Miller continually asked about the condition of his two boys. At the end of the chase, Miller said, "cause they tell me my kids are all right, that means I have to drop my hands. Y'all understand that, right."

Miller stopped and surrendered at mile marker 328 South of Waco. McLennan county jail records show he is charged with two 3rd-degree felonies, evading arrest w/vehicle, and unlawful possession of a firearm by a felon. Charges in the Mason County fires are expected.

Four of the five teams get to go to the playoffs so Lampasas is assured of a playoff spot already. The question is how they will be seeded. If they finish in 2nd place in district, they will play a 3rd place team from district? The 4th place team in district will have to play a 1st place team from the competing district. So-o, district standing at the end is important.

Lampasas will play Gatesville on Tuesday, a team they beat handily 88-42 in their first round game. After that, on Friday Feb. 12, the Badgers will play Brownwood. In their last game on Jan. 26th, Brownwood won it 69-56.

Lampasas could easily win both those games and go into the playoffs as a 2nd seed team.

Badger Tennis was in Gatesville on a chilly night, says Coach Peiser's report.

There was a two hour rain delay and a lengthy 12 hour day of tennis at one site. Lake Belton, Belton Gatesville, China Springs, Brownwood, Taylor, Academy, Mexia and Lampasas were all in the mix.

The Lampasas doubles team of Clements Valdez took a 3rd place, the Moyer/Valdez team won consolation after losing in the first round to the tournament winner.

City Election Update

After Mayor Misti Talbert announced she will not seek re-election, Myles Haider filed to run for Mayor Friday Morning. Regarding Place 1, Zach Morris, Attorney, has filed for election. Lampasas residents can sign up to run for City Council places 1,2 or 6 through February 12th for the May 1st election.

Sports

Badger Basketball

Lady Badgers Basketball is still in the mix for a playoff berth, but it will take a win on Monday in San Saba to get there.

Here's the deal. Brownwood and Lampasas finished the district season in a tie for 4th place. Four teams get to go to the playoffs out of the 5 team district. So-o, Brownwood and Lampasas must play to see who's 4th and who's 5th in district. As this determines who goes to the playoffs and in what seed, it's called a "play-in" game.

The two teams will meet Monday in San Saba's gym at 6pm. The game will be broadcast over KCYL Radio 1450AM and audio-streamed on lampasasradio.com at the "Listen live" buttons on the screen.

Whoever wins this game goes on to a bi-district playoff game against Graham on Thursday, Feb. 11th.

Badger Boys had bye on Friday, go back at it Tuesday.

Coach Aaron Nuckles' Badgers have two more games in district play. The district standings look like this:
