The Weather

High yesterday was 64° The low this morning was 51°

Today: Sunny, and up to 79° with strong S-SW wind 10-15 mph and gusting to 25.

Tonight: Overnight it will be partly cloudy, 60s and upper 50s for temperatures, and the wind will calm a lot.

Friday: Mostly sunny and even warmer, likely getting into the mid 80s. Overnight it will go down to the mid-40s as the wind shifts to north with the arrival of a weak cold front.

The Weekend: Saturday will be much cooler as the cold front seems a little stronger than thought yesterday. It will probably hold Saturday down to a high of about 67° and down to 50 or below overnight. The good news is that the wind will be light. On Sunday the high should be about 66° or so and overnight down to about 40°.

Next week: A small rain chance comes Monday and it will increase to 30-40% thru Tuesday. Wednesday should be sunny.

What's Coming..

The Lady Badgers playoff basketball team heads to Bastrop on Friday. There they'll meet the TABC ranked #15, El Campo, for some serious "Area" competition. El Campo is rated #7 by the TGCA, while Lampasas has fell out of the top 10 and top 20 state rankings as of Monday. Liberty Hill also fell out of the TGCA top 10.

We did note in the TGCA that Coach Myers still has the distinction of being number 7 in their winning-est Texas coaches list with something over 816 games. We're not sure how current that number is.

Local Gamblers, with fun and harmless intentions in mind, will be at the Lampasas Youth Livestock Barn on Saturday. It's the Wild West Casino Night 2019 that takes place there with the doors opening at 5:30pm and dinner at 6, gaming at 6:30pm. The tickets for the event are $50 per person for the steak dinner, gambling fun and chances to win prizes. It's all accompanied by an auction and it will all help raise funds for several local organizations.

District Court

in Lampasas last Friday saw 39 cases come before the bench with 18 cases reset. Pre-trials were set in 3 cases. Bond was found insufficient in one case, and reduced in another.

Aaron Schoch, Brandon Zirkle, and Jordan Miller failed to appear and warrants were issued. Two jury announcements were made, one for March 25th, and one For April 5th.

Vincent Williams received 5 years in TDCJ with credit for time served plus court fees for manufacture/delivery of a controlled substance. Amber Reed saw her probation revoked and is sentenced to 9 months State Jail with credit for time served for possession of a controlled substance. Steven Stem, also for possession of controlled substance, saw his probation revoked and received 12 months state jail with credit for time served plus court fees. Michael Morales was given 4 years deferred adjudication with a $750 fine plus court costs for evading arrest/detention with a vehicle. Felicia Daponte received 5 year deferred adjudication plus court costs for Debit/ Credit abuse of the elderly.

Sports

Basketball

Varsity girls aka Bi-District Champions remain the last area team in the girls' basketball playoffs after their win Monday night in Johnson City against Boerne. (51-30) It was an intense game, because both teams were competing to the best of their ability for the win, but the Boerne Greyhounds couldn't outwork our Lady Badgers. The girls will be traveling to Bastrop Cedar Creek tomorrow to compete in the second round of playoffs against El
