Cattle Rustling Charges

Based on scant information Lampasas Radio has been able to pick up a woman in north Lampasas county has lost a surprisingly large number of cattle to a tenant turned rustler. The press release below tells some of the story:

LAMPASAS COUNTY, Texas — William D. "Bill" Watson, Lampasas, was arrested Wednesday following a joint investigation by Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association Special Ranger Marvin Wills and Lampasas County Sheriff's Department Detective David Thorp. The 63-year-old suspect faces two counts of theft of livestock charges.

William D. "Bill" Watson, Lampasas, was arrested Wednesday. Earlier this month, Special Ranger Wills was contacted by a landowner who said she had reason to believe Watson, who lived on her ranch and helped with her cattle operation, was selling her livestock without her knowledge and keeping the proceeds. Through Wills' investigation, he determined Watson had sold 47 head of cattle that belonged to his employer, along with 26 head of cattle Watson had allowed another Lampasas County producer to run on the ranch without the owner's consent.

Watson has been arrested and charged for stealing 88 head of cattle from two victims valued at over $65,000. He is in the Lampasas County Jail on total bonds of $40,000.

Wills says the investigation and arrest was a team effort, and would like to thank Thorp, along with Sheriff Jess Ramos and his deputies.
