Lampasas County Sheriff's Dept. Blotter for Monday shows Lometa with an early morning accident. In Kempner, there were medical calls, a civil matter and a reported disturbance. Out in the county there were reports of suspicious activity, an alarm call, an accident, civil matters, medical calls, an abandoned vehicle, a fish & game call and a reported burglary. Deputies went into Cove on reports of suspicious activity, a reported stolen vehicle, animal issues, a reported fraud and a requested welfare check.

The Cost of Going Back to Work....

Employees returning to the office after being home for two years because of the pandemic were shocked to discover just how costly their lunches have become.

As of March 1, the average price of wraps is up 18 percent, sandwiches are up 14 percent, salads are up 11 percent and burgers are up 8 percent over last year, the Wall Street Journal reported, citing data from payments company Square.

Menu prices at restaurants overall have seen the highest increase since 1981, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, with prices skyrocketing in major cities, including San Francisco, Seattle, New York City, Washington, D.C., and Austin, Texas.

Before the pandemic, Edison Gomez bought an $8 burrito from the convenience store across the street from his office nearly every day. That burrito now costs him $12 with taxes.

The 33-year-old medical interpreter told the WSJ that the extra $4 - in addition to the surging price of gas to fund his nearly two-hour round-trip commute - takes a much larger chunk out of his earnings compared to his remote-work routine.

'I'm spending at least $20 more a day than when I was at home, and it's just becoming unsustainable to eat out,' he said.

Inflation is likely to spike even higher next month, as the impact of soaring fuel prices is taken into account.

The Labor Department said in early March that the consumer price index increased 0.8 percent in February from the month before, for a 7.9 percent gain from a year ago.

Lila was 15th place while achieving her best total of the year, 900 lbs. She had personal records on squat(375lbs) and bench press(220lbs), which also broke the school record for her weight class. We are very proud of the way these young ladies preformed. They represented Badger Nation proudly
