The Weather

The High yesterday 71°

The Low this morning 52°

Today: A 20% chance of rain after 1pm today, otherwise just cloudy and with a high around 67°. The S-SE wind could get up to 10-15 mph with gusts to 25.

Tonight: A 30% chance of a shower overnight, then the temp should drop to about 63°, with S-SE wind 10-15 mph and gusty.

Thursday: Mostly cloudy at first, then gradually sunny, with a high near 86° and south wind at 10-15 turning to westerly later in the afternoon and gusting a little.

Rest of the week: Friday will bring a mostly sunny day and up to 84° in the afternoon with light southerly breezes but overnight things will change as showers and thunderstorms come through the general area. The rain chances here are about 60%, according to the NWS long range forecast.

Saturday, it looks rough in the long range forecast for the annual Bloominfest festival in downtown Lampasas. The rain chances appear, in the long range forecast, to be about 80%. The high temperature forecast is more pleasing, at about 76° with light wind.

Sunday, the rain chances seem to go away. The temperature should hold up to 70s and 80s with lots of nice sunshine. The only problem is wind, with 10-15 mph and gusting, in the forecast.

Next week is going to start out very nice with upper 70s.- 80s..

Lampasas City Manager Notes

Lampasas City Manager's visit to KACQ Studio for the regular Wednesday morning interview included questions on the current City Council discussions Code Ordinances and their enforcement.

The "codes" that seem to get most enforcement, according to City Manager Finley de-Graffenried, have to do with weeds and high grass on local lots.

Another subject of study for the City Council seem to be going back to past discussions on Food Trucks. The crux of the problems are, "Where should food trucks be allowed? Should they have to pay the City to park on City property or what should "Permits" cost the operators, and should they even be allowed at all, considering the fact that they would compete with the local "brick and mortar" restaurants??? The pros and cons and what are the details...are all something the Lampasas City Council has to deal with.

There is a City Council Election coming up on May 4th. The last day to register to be able to vote in this election is tomorrow April 4th.

Teachers of the year recognized by LISD

Lampasas ISD recognized the "Teacher of the Year" for each campus Tuesday.

The process for these winners takes two weeks. Each campus recommends finalists by a vote of the teachers. The finalists then write essays to be reviewed by each campus leadership team, which also looks at majority votes to choose a Teacher of the Year for each campus.

This year's winners are:

Lampasas High School: Ryan Race & Kalin Wells

Lampasas Middle School: Heather Foreman & Judy Hail

Hanna Springs Elementary: Traci Bender

Kline Whitis Elementary: Crystal Hamrick

Taylor Creek Elementary: Sarah Schoonover

The essays from the above teachers are then reviewed anonymously by a committee of community members and retired teachers.

One Elementary and One Secondary teacher will advance to compete for the Region 12 Teacher of the Year. Dr. Kevin Bott shared with Lampasas Radio that Lampasas ISD can only send one Elementary Teacher and one Secondary Teacher to represent Lampasas at Region 12.

Thank you to all our teachers who work hard to educate the students in our community!

Congratulations to our campus winners!
