On the Agenda

A Women's Travel Talk Meetup will take place this evening at Putters & Gutters at 7pm. The event, put on by Robin England of Cruise Holidays, will feature local travelers' opportunity to swap stories and show pics of their adventures.

Free Labor?

Lampasas County will get a little free labor on Friday as the LCRA sends some of their employees to the area to work on community projects from 10am to 2pm.

The volunteer LCRA workers will be at the Sylvia Tucker Park at Kempner to paint railings and they'll be at Brook Park and the Sue Ann Park in Lampasas to spread mulch.

The "State" of Texas

You probably saw in the news recently that the execution of a prisoner was halted by the U.S. Supreme Court because Texas wouldn't allow a Buddhist chaplain into the death chamber. It seems Texas only allowed Christian and Muslim clerics because they were all the State had on their payroll.

The Supreme Court, via a Justice Brett Kavanaugh opinion, said Texas could either allow a chaplain of any religion in the death chamber, or they could just not allow any chaplains or clerics to be present. Texas says that from now on no chaplains would be able to be present in the death chamber.

On another front, the Texas legislature is still deciding on how to handle the school funding/property tax relief legislation. The Senate came in wanting a $5,000 pay raise for all teachers and librarians. The House wanted to provide more cash funding to schools, and allow the school districts to figure out how it could best be used in their district. Many of the schools had indicated they might want to use a merit system to give out pay raises.

It seems the House has now passed a bill that gets a little closer to the Senate idea. They have agreed to rules that would require mandatory pay raises of at least $1,850 for teachers. That House Bill will now go to the Senate for consideration and the negotiations can begin.

Badger Sports

Softball

The Badger Varsity, after dropping their last game to Salado 3-6, still has games with Liberty Hill, Taylor and Burnet to play, in that order.

The district leading, state ranked #8, Liberty Hill team will be a tough go for the Badgers, as will the state ranked #11 Taylor team. The Burnet game should be less of a challenge. All that being said, the Lady Badgers will be in there mixing it up for all three games.

(Pix above-Natalie DeNoso singles in Salado game)

The team will be at Liberty Hill for Friday's road game, which will be broadcast live over KCYL Radio at 1450AM and on the web at lampasasradio.com at the KCYL button. The district standings are:

- Liberty Hill 6-0
- Taylor 5-1
- Salado 4-2
- Lampasas 2-4
- Burnet 1-5
- Eastside 0-6

Baseball

The Badger Varsity (4-0 in district) heads to Eastside Memorial on Friday for their 5th district game. That game will be played at Garrison Field, in Garrison Park, off Manchaca Rd. by Stassney on the south side of town.

Eastside is winless in district play so far but Coach Doege warns that the team does have at least a couple of good players and you never know, so he's taking the team in full-blow to get a win. He notes that when Eastside played state-ranked Liberty Hill in their last game, they were not run-ruled. The final was an 8-1 Liberty Hill win.

Happy Birthday
Pat O'Banon

So-o, look for the Badgers to come in smokin', at least until the game is iced down pretty well.

The current standings are:

- Lampasas 4-0
- Liberty Hill 4-0
- Salado 2-2
- Burnet 2-2
- Taylor 0-4
- Eastside 0-4

Badger Baseball will be broadcast live over KACQ 101.9FM and on lampasasradio.com at the KACQ button.

Golf

Boys and Girls Varsity and JV golf teams were at the White Wing Golf Course in Sun City on Wednesday and will be back again on Monday. This is the District Tournament and the results are
