Take me out to the ball game...

The really dedicated baseball and softball fans will be on the road this afternoon, headed to either Garrison Park Field in Austin or Liberty Hill's Softball Field.

The baseball game in Austin, vs Eastside Memorial, has been moved up to 5pm while the softball games, JV at 5pm and Varsity at 7pm are going as scheduled.

Back home, the Lampasas Chamber of Commerce workers and vendor booth operators are getting ready for the Bloomin' Fest on Courtyard Square. And, figuring out what they are going to do if hard rain comes to the area.

Cove to Elect Mayor Apr. 27th

A special situation brings about a Special Election on April 27th to elect a new Mayor in Copperas Cove.

The Mayor of Copperas Cove, Frank Seffrood, had died in late December. In his absence, the Mayor Pro-tem, Dan Yancy has been filling the seat, pending election of a new Mayor. The regular Election Day for City Council seats in Texas is May 4th, however, that won't work for Copperas Cove. The City Charter says when such a vacancy comes up for the Mayor's seat, an Election must be held within 120 days. That winds up requiring an Apr. 27 Special Election.

Running for the seat are two men and two women.

They are: Ron Nelson, Bradi Diaz, Joey Acfalle and Brandi Weland.

Early Voting begins next Wednesday, April 10 at the polling place at 210 South 1st in Copperas Cove.

FFA chapter adopts a highway

In a partnership with the Texas Highway Department, the Lampasas High School FFA chapter has adopted a 2 mile section of 580E in Lampasas County.

Many thanks to the kids, and advisors Ms. Taylor Thacker and Ms. Dala Quackenbush for their community service.
