Lady Badger Softball

Lady Badger Softball is scheduled to travel to Stephenville this afternoon to take on the Honeybees. This is, of course, dependent on field conditions. If you can't make the game, join Darrell Brooks and his team as they broadcast the play by play over KCYL 1450AM radio, and stream at lampasasradio.com at the listen live button.

Lampasas Community

Gardens Coordinator Janet Crozier was in Lampasas Radio studios this morning to talk about the Community Garden project, and the open house they are having tomorrow at Campbell Park from 1-5pm.

Lampasas Community Gardens has a total of 8000 sq. feet in Campbell Park, to allow community residents to garden on a raised bed of 4x4 or 4x8 feet. The plots are rented, but there are scholarships and financial resources available. This can be a good learning experience for any age, and it encourages eating fresh, organic food from the garden.

Tomorrow's open house will feature speakers about gardening, landscaping, birding as well as musical guests and Lampasas Police Chief Sammy Bailey. There is a raffle for a large Yeti ice chest, tickets $1 each, and the winner will be drawn at 5pm tomorrow.

The event is at 501 E. North Ave behind Hanna Springs Pool tomorrow from 1-5pm.

It's Friday !

What's goin' on?

Waiting for the rain to clear?

Lampasas Radio is waiting to hear from Badger Baseball Coach Chance Evans on the field conditions. If conditions permit, the Badgers will play Stephenville for the 3rd time this season, with each team winning one. If the game is postponed, there may be a change of location, a change of date or both.

The Badger Baseball Hamburger Dinner is planned for today from 5-6:30pm. If there is inclement weather, the dinner will be postponed until next Tuesday, April 20th, which is senior night for Badger Baseball and Lady Badger Softball.

We will keep you updated on the games status as we receive information. If you can't make it to the game, we do plan to broadcast over KACQ FM 101.9 radio, and stream at lampasasradio.com at the listen live button.

We Could Be At Risk For A Power Outage!

Power blackouts in Texas could be in our future once more this summer on the off chance that the state encounters a serious warm wave or dry spell combined with tall request for control. Summer 2021 in Texas will be hotter and drier compared to normal and is highly likely to rank among the 10 hottest in a long time. On Tuesday Texans were asked to preserve power since the supply of energy seem to barely keep up with power necessity. This past week a remarkable chunk of the grid's power plants was offline due to upkeep, as a result of damage from the winter storm. The damage caused by winter storms could be the most expensive disaster in the history of the state. Surpassing Hurricane Harvey's damages costing as much as $ 125 billion, according to experts. A last summer evaluation will be allocated May 6.

Texas Unemployment Rate Still High

As Texas adds 99,000 jobs in the last month the unemployment rate is still up from last year's pandemic fall out. In March Texas unemployment rate was 6.9%, which is more than two times the record low point of 3.4% in May 2019. In February, a hazardous winter storm hit knocking vast strips of the state off the power grid for days causing Texas more intensified economical financial battles including our state sales tax revenue. Then in March Texas's unemployment claims jumped to levels that we have not seen since last summer.

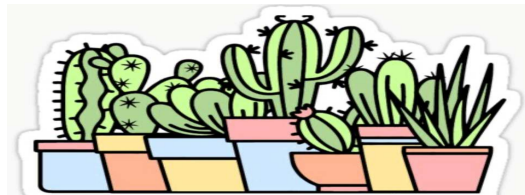

Starr Testing Adds Pressure To Students

Texas schoolchildren are now faced with routine standardized testing and makeup work after a school year plagued by a pandemic and a hazardous winter storm. Many parents and teachers say that this is not necessary. Even though some of students
