Election News

The Lampasas County Elections Office reports that on April 20th, there were 62 early votes in the City of Lampasas/City of Kempner joint election, and 8 early ballots cast in Lometa.

Also in the news is Senate Bill 7, which, according to an article in the Texas Tribune, will change the way some localities in Texas hold elections. Among the changes will be: Limiting how local officials can expand voting options; Requiring paper trails for voting; Setting new rules for voting by mail; Regulating donations to counties; Setting new rules for removing people from the voter rolls; Enhancing poll watcher freedom and Requiring the recording of vote counting.

Senate Bill 7 has passed the State Senate and is headed to the State House of Representatives. This legislation is aimed at restricting how local officials control voting.

Vaccines Available

Dr. Hay shared with Lampasas Radio that the Moderna Vaccine will be available at no cost this Saturday, April 24th at Lampasas High School. You can sign up online at Lampasas.org, or call 512-734-3635. They ask that you leave a voice message and someone will get back to you. There will be drive-thru accommodations for those who are unable to leave their car. The 2nd dose is scheduled for May 22 at Lampasas High School.

District Court Notes

Lampasas County Courthouse was the site of a 27th District Court Docket Call on April 16th. Presiding over the Court was 27th District Court Judge John Gauntt. Altogether 13 cases were brought to the court with 11 cases involving men, and 2 cases involving women.

There were 4 cases involving possession of a controlled substance/PG1. There was 1 case each for; cruelty /non-livestock animal, injury to a child, endangering a child, theft of a firearm, invasive visual recording, unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, and forgery. There were 2 cases evading arrest w/a vehicle.

Two cases was settled with Anthony Crowley, of Lampasas pleading guilty to unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, and sentenced to 6 days county jail (credit time served), plus fines and costs. Christopher Chambliss, of Royse City, charged with DWI/w child in vehicle, pled guilty to the lesser charge of DWI and was sentenced to 12 months county jail/probated 2 years plus costs and fines.

All other cases were rescheduled or set for jury trials.
