The following is editorial opinion: Are You Anti-Tobacco For Kids?

If so, you'll probably feel happy about the law being considered in both state and national legislatures that would raise the legal smoking age from 18 to 21.

The bill in the U.S. Senate is being pushed by Mitch McConnell, the Senate Majority Leader. H-m-m, wait a minute, isn't McConnell the Senator from Kentucky, where tobacco is 25% of the total agricultural crop and the 2nd greatest producer of tobacco in the country? - the state with 120 counties where, according to the University of Kentucky, 119 of them grow tobacco? That's odd!

Or is it...a little research reveals that the tobacco company lobbyists are actually pushing the over 21 bill. Researching a little more we find that anti-tobacco enthusiasts say the bill will have little effect. They say the tobacco companies are more interested in keeping and creating new addictions through new flavored brands, vaping, and something they're working on called IQOS. IQOS is a new product of Philip Morris that heats tobacco and turns it into a vapor but doesn't burn it. It hasn't been approved by the FDA yet, but in Europe and 45 countries altogether, they're selling it in Apple-like stores with a huge and glamorous production.

IQOS is just one more way to inhale nicotine and create addictions, but the tobacco giant is evidently going to make it the next big thing. If cigarettes and cigars and pipes were all taken away, tobacco is evidently just going to switch to forms of vaping. The point is, raising the age to buy or smoke cigarettes appears to be a foil to satisfy those who want to fight teen nicotine addiction. But if we really want to fight the addiction, we should adopt broad restrictions on vaping as well as cigarettes and cigars. Some of that can be done in our own Texas Legislature.

Badger Baseball

New Deal...Change in bi-district playoff schedule:

Rain, the likelihoods, and other matters, have brought a new schedule.

(1)The Lampasas and Boerne Baseball teams will meet on Thursday, May 2nd, in Dripping Springs, at 7:30pm for their first playoff game. That is a 30 minute push-back from earlier plans.

(2)There will not be a Friday game, as earlier planned. The second game will be on Saturday at 4pm. Game three, if necessary, will be played 30 minutes after that second game.

The matchup...Lampasas greatest advantage in the playoffs is probably its bullpen, an advantage Boerne may not have. Their starter in the last game, Cale Mathison, was pulled early after iving up 3 runs and 4 walks, relieved by Matthew St. Amour, who still gave up 6 hits and 3 runs but he didn't walk and he struck out 4. In the previous game Brady Turnbill started and was relieved by St. Amour after 3 innings. Amour gave up no walks and struck out 2. It looks like, of Boerne's three pitchers, Mathison and St. Amour might be the most threatening, though in a Fredericksburg game Turnbill turned in a strike percentage of almost 74% after over 6 innings.

Lots to look at and think about as we wait...for Thursday. Anybody know a good place to eat?

Thursday's game, weather permitting, will begin at 7:30pm in Dripping Springs. It, and all Badger playoff games, will be broadcast live on KACQ 101.9FM and on the internet at lampasasradio.com.

Golf

LeeAnn Parker brought home the Gold and Kristen Richards placed 4th individually at the 4A Region 4 golf tournament, giving them a ticket to the State Tournament.

Ace Whitehead took 3rd place, but with a wild card, he also qualifies to run at State.

4X200 Relay – Badgers Dylan Alpha, Thomas Cavalieri, Brady Carroll and Cameron Everts took 2nd Place and goes to State.
