Lampasas City Council

Last evening's city council meeting welcomed two new faces in Council Members elect, Zac Morris for Place 1 and Herb Pearce II for Place 6. TJ Monroe, who was previously Mayor Pro Tem, was sworn in as the newly elected Mayor. Place 3 Councilman, Chuck Williamson, was voted in as the new Mayor Pro Tem. Robert Gradel retains his appointment as the Municipal Court Judge and Administer Oath of Office.

During Fire Chief Jeff Smith's COVID remarks, he says that Lampasas has a total of 3 active COVID cases, with 1 hospitalization

Police Chief Sammy Bailey delivered her proposed ordinance change to the Livestock and Fowl Ordinance for the city. She reiterated this was a draft proposal and that the final draft was not yet ready. One immediate effect of the proposed ordinance change is the declaration forbidding any roosters or swine, to include pot belly pigs. The ordinance offers residents until January of 2022 to be in compliance, or may result in fines. Once a final draft is approved, it is noted that a public hearing will be scheduled to discuss this new, potential change.

City Manager Finley deGraffenried displayed several proposed improvements to the Hostess House renovation plan. No action was taken on this item. Council approved, at the request of the County Judge, that the mayor serve on the Hill Country Transit Advisory Board. Council promptly nominated Mayor Monroe and Councilman Bob Goodart as the alternate.

Council voted unanimously granting the petition for the voluntary annexation of the Hillside Acres Subdivision, which is approximately 37 acres of land that will consist of 27 single family homes.

The police department was granted authority to purchase a Vista-Com Recording solution to combat recurring problems in the software that records police and fire dispatching and radio traffic. The amount allotted for this purchase is not to exceed $8665.00. Chief Bailey is optimistic that most of that cost will be refunded by the Central Texas Council of Governments.

Discussion to invest money to help in the preservation of the New Hope Baptist Church (located next to the Colored School) was postponed to July, until as Councilman Clark said, "we get a better grasp on the HOT funds" and the financial stability of these funds. Council adjourned into Executive Session and emerged with no action taken.
