Music in Lampasas this Sunday

Sunday June 4th in Lampasas features two free concerts, with Piano Trios at First Presbyterian Church at 3pm with 'Bohemian Journey' which is part of the Lampasas County Chamber Music Festival, and then The First Baptist Church of Lampasas will be hosting a concert with well-known church music composer, Joseph Martin, at 6pm Sunday. There will be no ticket sales for the concert at the First Baptist Church, but those in attendance will be able to give an appreciation contribution at the concert.

The Lampasas County Chamber Music Festival is taking place this weekend, with free concerts beginning tonight with 'Rock to the Classics' at Langston Gallery at 7pm with Richard Harrison on guitar, and tomorrow night at Saloon 37 with 'Oboe Classics'. The Music Festival will also feature 'Quartets at the Keystone' on Saturday at 7pm. Tickets for that event are $35.

Joseph Martin, performing at First Baptist Church Sunday at 6pm is a native of North Carolina earned his Bachelor of Music degree at Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina and earned his Master's degree in music at the University of Texas at Austin.

His company, Martin Creative Services has developed web based ventures including Sanctuary Radio and Worship Songs Online. His recordings include American Tapestry (nominated for a Dove Award), Songs of the Journey, Celtic Tapestry, A Christmas Tapestry and A Symphony of Carols. He and his wife, Sue, currently reside at Concordia University in Austin where he is Artist in Residence.

This will be a busy weekend for local music fans.

John Scott Named as Interim Attorney General

Gov. Greg Abbott on Wednesday appointed Fort Worth lawyer and former Secretary of State John Scott as interim Texas attorney general, temporarily replacing Ken Paxton, who was suspended as attorney general pending the outcome of an impeachment trial in the state Senate.

Death Notice

Arbie Dee "AD" Robinett

December 4, 1931 – May 28, 2023.

The Lord Jesus has called home Arbie Dee "AD" Robinett, often referred to as the sweetest, kindest man that most people had ever known. Born on December 4, 1931 in Izora, Texas, AD grew up on a small farm near Kempner.

He was a loyal friend, mentor, perfectionist and advisor to everyone he met. He passed peacefully at sunset on the evening of May 28th. AD will join his wife Cleo who went to be with the Lord in February 2017.

AD leaves behind his daughter Amanda and her husband Brad Nelsen, of Austin along with grandchildren Austin Nelsen with wife Kheili and great-grandson Wylder, Carson Nelsen with wife Jordan and great-grandson Otto, and granddaughter Hailey Nelsen, in Dallas. His son, Alton Robinett of Marietta, GA and grandchildren Alex Robinett with fiancé Jiney, and Zachary Robinett with wife Hillary.

At age 19 in 1951, AD married his high school sweetheart Cleo McGehee, and joined the US Navy that same year. AD served 4 years on the USS Tratheon as a Radar Man fighting in the Korean War while Cleo remained in Virginia Beach. Upon returning from service AD & Cleo settled in Lubbock where he was a lineman for Southwestern Bell, then he and Cleo moved to Killeen in 1959 with their two small children. In Killeen, AD joined his father-in-law Tom McGehee in the butane and propane business, and soon expanded into air conditioning services and a full scale hardware store. AD operated the Killeen Hardware and Propane business with Cleo from 1968 – 1995 which gave him the ability to fix anything and everything. During their time in Killeen, AD served on the Killeen City Council, and they were both very active with the First Baptist Church.

In 1995, AD & Cleo retired to Lake LBJ in Oak Ridge Estates. AD immediately became involved in everything Oak Ridge, maintaining and improving the neighborhood, and always reaching out to assist anyone in the neighborhood with projects. Their home in Oak Ridge filled the summertime with their grandchildren teaching them how to fish, ski and enjoy the lake life. AD was always ready to take on a new chore or activity with his grand kids, and always there to tell them right from wrong. His kindness, generosity and love will be remembered by all who had the privilege to have known him.

A private graveside service for family and friends will be held in Lampasas.

Arrangements entrusted to the care of Crawford-Bowers Funeral Home in Copperas Cove.

Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.crawfordbowerscopperascove.com for the Robinett family.
