A.C. January Memorial Day Tournament Big Success – Again!

When the smoke cleared on Monday and it was all counted up by tournament officials and local businesses, yes it was a great weekend!

The annual tournament brought 192 entries. Some were locals of course, but many of those entries came from other cities and towns. The out-of-towners roomed in local hotels and guest houses and many had family members with them. They shopped and dined in local eateries and purchased fuel and beverages...and our town benefitted. There's little as satisfying to business owners here as the dollars that tourism brings to our town.

As to the tournament itself, Hooray for some of our local golfers! They topped out much of the leadership flights.

At the very top of the Championship Flight was our own High School golf coach, Justin Schulze. He burned up the course on Saturday's 18 holes with a 63, then came back on Sunday and Monday with 70 rounds both days to finish up as Champion with a 203. Right behind Schulze were familiar names Stayton Lindeman and Logan Fox with 206 and 208 totals. Derrek Eckermann was down a bit scorewise (224) in that Championship Flight but came away with the "lame duck" prize.

Bret May won the Presidents Flite, Scott Lesley the First Flite and on down the list with lots of local names included with enviable score sheets. It was another really good tournament for the local course.

Skatepark Design Meeting

The City Council met last night with the company, SPA Skatepark that was contracted to design the skate park for the City of Lampasas. There was no discussion of funding or moving forward with the park last night. The purpose of last night's meeting was to possibly accept the design. Further discussion will take place at the next City Council meeting on June 13th.

Called School Board Meeting

The Lampasas ISD School Board met yesterday evening in a called meeting. On the agenda was the discussion and consideration of the election services agreement and calling the School Board Election.

No date was set, but the consensus is that the runoff election for place 5 between Harvey Stinnett and Kelsi Davis will take place in July.

CTC College for Kids

Central Texas College (CTC) will host a series of classes aimed at youngsters age five and older through its College for Kids program. The classes will be held in Lampasas. The CTC College for Kids schedule for Lampasas includes the following classes:

It's My Business (age 13+) – students will learn to create an actual business plan as they develop a foundation to becoming a successful business owner. Topics include developing a business plan, financing, marketing and promotion. The class is Monday/Wednesday/Friday, June 6-17, from 9 a.m.-12 p.m.

The cost is $209

Be Empowered! STEM for Girls (age 9-14) – girls will dive into a different STEM area each day and explore topics and actively participate in hands-on experiments in engineering, computer science and coding. They will also learn about careers where women are typically underrepresented and have the opportunity to interact with women currently working in STEM careers. The class is Monday – Thursday, June 6-9 from 9 a.m. – 12 p.m. the cost is $99.

Unicorn Magic (age 5-12) – create magical projects such as unicorn ornaments, headbands and more. This is the perfect class for any kid who loves rainbows, sprinkles and unicorns. Unicorn friends will also make a special unicorn snack. Wear comfortable clothes you can get messy. Class will be held June 6 from 12:30 – 3:30 p.m. The cost is $39. (cont'd on back)
