In Lampasas Radio Studios

Lampasas Economic Development Director (LEDC) Stacey Ybarra and Fire Chief Jeff Smith were in Lampasas Radio Studios today.

Ms. Ybarra shared that the city has completed the covenants for the Lampasas Business Park and are in the process of filing them with the clerk's office to make them official. The city hopes in Phase 1 to lure manufacturing and logistics businesses to the park. Ms. Ybarra also stated it would be a good location for a big box store with the goal being to bring jobs to the area. The LEDC is advertising the business park through different realtors, and just generally getting the word out about the availability of the sites.

There will be a job fair next Wednesday, June 14th at the Calvert Municipal Building from 10am-1pm. The fair will feature jobs in industries such as healthcare, manufacturing, retail, food service and more. For more information contact Stacey Ybarra at sybarra@cityoflampasas.com.

Chief Smith shared that the burn ban continues to be lifted. If you are in the county you need to call the sheriff's office and let them know you will be burning and if you are in the city, and not using a barrel or container, you need to call or visit city hall and get a burn permit.
