(cont'd from front) TWC Chariman Bryan Daniel shares that there are 687,000 job openings reported recently by Texas Employers.

This is a big milestone—15 million people who want to offer their skills to employers,” said TWC Commissioner Representing Labor Alberto Treviño III. “TWC supports quality child care and early learning, career and technical education, and adult education and literacy opportunities to obtain or enhance those skills.”

TxDOT Drunk Driving

Drunk driving deaths increased again last year in Texas, and TxDOT is urging all Texans to save lives and reverse this trend by choosing a sober ride.

PLAN WHILE YOU CAN.
DRINK. DRIVE. GO TO JAIL.

FacesOfDrunkDriving.com
TxDOT

It's a tragic but disturbingly common story — 1,162 people were killed in drunk driving crashes in Texas in 2022, a 2% increase from the year before.

That's equivalent to three people dying every day of the year. “Numbers can sometimes feel abstract,” said TxDOT Executive Director Marc Williams. “But these are real people whose lives were either lost or forever altered by someone's decision to drink and drive.

TCEQ Proposing Changes to Permit Concrete Batch Plants

Communities statewide have demanded that the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) strengthen environmental regulations for concrete batch plants, which combine raw materials such as sand, water and cement to make concrete. Residents who live near the plants have complained about air, noise and light pollution.

Now, proposed changes to a TCEQ permit these plants need to operate — lower production limits, dust reduction and setting minimum distance requirements from nearby communities — give some Texans hope that state regulators are cracking down on the plants' emissions, while others believe the state agency is falling short on prioritizing the health of Texans.

If approved by TCEQ, the rules will take effect next January and will immediately apply to new plants, while current permit holders will need to comply within two years of the rules' adoption.

Permits for concrete batch plants aim to limit pollution in the form of particulate matter, crystalline silica, carbon monoxide and other air toxins that have been linked to respiratory diseases and cancer.
