The link will then take you to a site that also appears to be the USPS website and asks for credit card information for a fee to have your package delivered. THIS IS A SCAM, and the USPS will never operate in this manner. Please be aware and do not click on any links or share any information.

From Alvin New, Commissioner Texas Transportation Commission

The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) is making an historic investment in the future of our rapidly growing state. During our August Texas Transportation Commission meeting, we approved TxDOT's 10-year transportation program that includes more than $85 billion dedicated to improving safety, addressing congestion and connectivity, and preserving roadways for Texas drivers.

Our state covers more than 266,000 square miles and 1,000 new people are added to the population in Texas every single day. According to recent Census estimates, Texas grew by more than 310,000 from July 2020 to July 2021, and we're fast approaching a population of 30 million.

TxDOT has planned, and will continue to plan, for this growth and play a critical role in providing the needed infrastructure to help move people and products. That's where our Unified Transportation Program, or UTP, comes in.

Since our mission at TxDOT is "Connecting You With Texas," we're working hard to make sure every region of the state stays connected. That's why we're dedicating more than $12.2 billion to statewide connectivity projects to upgrade interstates and other major rural highways over the next 10 years via the 2023 UTP.2

We're planning to invest an historic level of approximately $14 billion in our rural areas over the next 10 years through our 2023 UTP. This demonstrates TxDOT's commitment to building and maintaining a safe and efficient transportation system, not only in our most populous areas, but also in those rural areas that are so vital to our state's economic success.
