7A won 40-0The Badgers put in another dominant performance against the Wimberley Texans. The defense led the way early and the offense was firing on all cylinders throughout the game. The Badgers jumped out to an early lead and never looked back. Tanner Chappell capped off the night with a pick six to put the Texans away for good. The coaches are proud of the effort and look forward to continued growth for these young men! We travel to Waco next Thursday to take on Waco Robinson. Go Badgers!!

The 8th grade B team fell to the Wimberley Texans Thursday night 12 - 6.This hard fought game was a defensive struggle. Vincent Ciccariello connected on some nice pass completions to Wyatt Jones and James Wisdom . Brandon Cooper ran for a 25 yard touchdown pass behind some good blocking from the offensive line. The defense was able to get some good stops and continues to improve each week. Defensive standouts were Luke McGinnis, Eliot Sanchez, and Nathan Durham. Calvin Clark added a good 20 yard punt return on special teams. We look forward to another week of improvement before facing the Robinson Rockets on Thursday night in Waco.

The 8th grade A team lost a hard-fought battle to Wimberley 34-22.Ty Johnson scored 2touchdowns on the night. One was a 65-yard TD pass from QB Tripp Stinnett; the other was a rushing TD for 35 yards. He would also add Two 2-point conversions to the Scoreboard. Kash Connor had a great night running the football and would reach pay dirt on a 25-yard toss play around the left side. The offensive line (Jeremiah Peters, Brody Hilgenberg, Mason Warren, Carson Touns, and Campbell Roberts) had their best game of the season-opening up holes for the backs and did a great job getting to the next level. Cayhil Isom, Jeremiah Peters, Trent Royar, and Joe Ybarra were Defensive standouts. This defensive unit shows excellent potential. We are looking forward to playing a well-rounded Waco Robinson team next Thursday, September 29th.
