Funeral Notice

On Sunday September 22, 2019 Julia Maria Aguilar, our beloved daughter went to be with the Lord at age 38, surrounded by her family at St. David's North in Austin. Julia was born July 4, 1981 at Brook Army Medical Center to Gerardo and Maria Aguilar. She was born prematurely at 26 weeks and weighed 1 pound 14 ounces. She was a miracle baby and was a true fighter all her 38 years.

She began playing the flute in 6th grade under the direction of David Hausmann, where she won many awards as she did in high school under leadership of Paul Fellows and Richard Hooper. As a high school Sr, she won state solo and ensemble a few times. While in school she was selected by the state to attend Leadership meetings in Dallas and Houston. Governor Ann Richards selected Julia to represent Texas in this Leadership group on a trip to Austria. She attended Lampasas schools and graduated in 1999.. She was a member of Lampasas bands, playing her flute and she was in marching band during football season, where she held the banner and played pit bells. She graduated high school on a Friday night and the next morning was off to Austin where she enrolled at Austin Community College and later Temple College. Once she completed some basic course work she transferred to Texas Tech University in Lubbock. She had long had a dream of attending Tech. She was so excited to be a Red Raider. There, she continued her study of music under direction of Dr. Garner, where she played many concerts. Julia graduated from Texas Tech University in 2006 Magna Cum Laude with double major in Music Performance and Psychology. She later studied at Canterbury University in New Zealand.

She returned to Texas and began working for Apple Corp. in Austin. She was the first blind Hispanic female to be hired by Apple. She was very excited to work for them. On January 31, 2019 Julia was diagnosed with stage 4 breast cancer. Julia gave it her all fighting this horrible disease. She wanted to live, she would say she had so much to live for. Mostly she wanted to marry the man of her dreams.

Julia leaves behind, her parents; Gerardo and Maria Aguilar, guide dog; Vonya, fiancé Justin Mann(Justin's daughter Olivia Mann, Justin's parents, Tommy and Joyce Mann all of Gainesville, TX). Grandmother; Teresa Velasquez, Grandparents; Marcelo and Mary Julia Aguilar of Lubbock, Aunt; Cruz Gonzalez (Mando) of Austin, Justin Velasquez, Jim Langley and Stacy, Esther Cervantes, Rosenda Vargas, Joe Andrew Velasquez (Mary), Christina Gomez (Danny), Elena Aguilar, Julie Rojo (Robert), Joe Aguilar (Yolanda), Frank Aguilar (Virginia), Antonio Aguilar (Jamaca), Marcelo Aguilar (Jessica), numerous cousins, great aunts, great uncles. She was preceded in death by twin siblings and her grandfather Joe Velasquez Jr.

Rosary and viewing will be at 6pm Friday September 27 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Lampasas. Funeral Mass is Saturday September 28 at 10am.

Reception at Grace Fellowship following the burial
Sneed Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements
