The Weather

The High yesterday was 31° The Low this morning 11°
The high/low above were at Lampasas airport. The high was actually recorded just after midnight Tuesday night (Wednesday morning).

The low of 11° at Lampasas this morning was bested by LCRA gauges at Lometa hitting 7°, SW of Lampasas 4° and at Bend on the Colorado River at 2°.

Today: The temperature at 10:30 this morning was still in the low 20s, but it's expected to get into the mid-30s this afternoon with a light N-NE breeze and sunny sky.

Tonight: The sky should be clear, with a low down to 17° overnight and the wind shift coming around to east and then south by morning.

Thursday: Sunshine and the wind shift to southerly will bring relief as temperatures make it into the mid 40s for the afternoon. Overnight it will be cloudy again but the low should stay just about the freezing mark, allowing any pipes that thawed out in the afternoon to continue their warmup.

The rest of the Week: On Friday it will be partly sunny with a high getting into the upper 50s with 5-15 mph S-SW wind. Saturday will be warm, up to 72° but a bit on the windy side with south wind gusting to 30 mph. Saturday night it could get cloudy with a chance of showers and still windy. Sunday is the best chance of a shower, with an upper 60s high and lots of south wind 15-20 mph and gusting to 25.

Perhaps Record Cold

It was bitter cold this morning, though without the wind of the day before it wasn't quite as miserable. The lows around the area of 1 and 2 degrees in some spots are undoubtedly records, though Lampasas didn't seem to be as cold as other spots in the area.

Many in the country are busy trying to solve the problems of frozen water pipes and when it thaws a little this afternoon there may be more problems for the handymen among us.

Because of the expected icy roadway problems yesterday the schools were closed. It wasn't that bad, but administrators would always err on the side of caution when the safety of our kids is concerned.

Supt. Chane Rascoe says the day will not have to be "made up" by students, but the bad weather day on the school's calendar for March 30th will be used for a staff make up day. That meaning, teachers and staff will have to work that day."

It's Sale Day at Lampasas Cattle Auction

Area cattlemen will be buying and selling at the auction barn north of town this afternoon. The sale starts at 12:30pm and it will be following one of the bigger sales of the past 12 months. Last week there were 898 head on hand at the sale and feeders were $5 to $7 higher. That will be a tough act to follow. Slaughter cattle were all steady last week but there were no replacement cattle on hand.

This week there are 25-30 black and black-baldy, with a few red, heavy bred 1st calf heifers expected. All the heifers were reportedly bred to low birth weight black bulls.

This could be a good opportunity for ranchers looking for pasture cattle.

Sports

Badger Basketball Tonight

The Lampasas Badgers (17-8/1-3), head for Taylor this afternoon for tonight's 6:15pm game with the Taylor Ducks.

Coach Aaron Nuckles team was pre-empted in its Tuesday scheduled game by bad weather, and he hopes the day off doesn't have any effect on his team's readiness for the game.

He says Taylor is a team that is ripe for a win, having gone 0-4 so far in district play, but nevertheless having plenty of talent to rack up some wins before the season is over.

The Boy's Varsity is the only boys team to play tonight, with the JV and freshmen getting a bye on the date.

The game will be broadcast live over KCYL 1450AM and on the internet at lampasasradio.com at the sports link. The broadcast is sponsored by Storm's, First State Bank of Burnet, Great Clips, Tex Air and Hochheim Insurance.

The Lady Badgers (15-15/2-4) needs their second win over Taylor tonight to get them a little closer to the 6 wins they will need to have a shot at the playoffs this year.

They'll play Taylor tonight at 5pm, preceding the boys game. They beat Taylor in their first outing of the district season and likely have a good shot at doing it again, but it has been a tough past few of games for the girls, losing 3 in a row. Two of those games were against the district leaders, but any more losses this season will count against their playoff chances.

Tonight's 5pm game will be broadcast live over KCYL 1450AM and on the internet at lampasasradio.com at the sports link. The broadcast is sponsored by Procter motors, Great Clips and Tex Air.

Middle School Basketball played Marble Falls Tuesday night and came out with a mixed bag as Marble Falls' girls won the 7B game 34-12 over the Lampasas girls.

In the 7A game the results were reversed with Lampasas winning 33-28. Lampasas started strong early and was ahead 10 points at the half. The girls were led in scoring by Payton Tatum with 19 points, followed by Julia Andrade with 7.

The 8th grade B team beat Marble Falls 26-18.

The 8th A won 41-34, even though they were behind 9-14 at the half. They came out in the 3rd quarter fired up and became aggressive.

In Conjunction with the regular sale on 1.17.18

We will have the following special consignments:

30 Black & Black Baldy with a few Red Heavy Bred
1st calf Heifers
Few Young Pairs

Both Kharis Castaneda and Laurcy Bender were hot behind the 3 point line, making 3 each. Laurcy led the team with 17 points, followed by Kharis with 13.
