Coryell County Inmate Still not in Custody

Saturday, 2:15 p.m.

The search for escaped inmate Brandon Hogan is ongoing with Coryell County Sheriff's Office deputies, DPS Troopers and Game Wardens and members of the U.S. Marshal's Fugitive Task Force.

Those in the area are reminded to report any suspected sightings or anything suspicious and not to approach the subject. All tips are welcomed and appreciated by calling 911 or the CCSO at (254) 865-7201.

Hunters are especially encouraged to keep their vigilance this weekend as many are in the wooded areas for opening weekend. Sheriff Scott Williams is appreciative of all the support and assistance the CCSO is continuing to receive throughout this search.

As a reminder, Hogan is 5'09", approximately 160 lbs with light brown/blonde hair that is balding on top. If you see him, do not approach the subject but call law enforcement immediately.

(cont'd from front) election this year, eligible Texans can cast their ballots for state leaders and their district-based representatives.

The governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, land commissioner and agriculture commissioner — who all serve four-year terms — are up for election.

Members of the state's Railroad Commission, which regulates oil and gas, and various state courts are up for election to six-year terms.

All U.S. representatives, state senators, state representatives and members of the State Board of Education are also up for election after the redrawing of political districts last year based on the 2020 census. U.S. and state representatives are elected to two-year terms while state senators and State Board of Education members draw lots to serve two- or four-year terms after the first post-redistricting election.

In our US House District, District 11, August Pfluger (R) is running unopposed. The Texas House District for our area, District 68 has David Spiller (R) running unopposed. Texas Senate District 24 for our region has Pete Flores (R) running against Kathy Jones-Hospod (D). The State Board of Education has 15 Districts and in our area, State Board of Education District 10, Tom Maynard (R) is running unchallenged.

Sports

Our high school Cross Country teams traveled to Marble Falls Saturday morning for our last meet before District. All of our district opponents were in attendance, and the results showed us what we need to work on and who we need to pass to put ourselves in a place to qualify for the Regional Meet in Huntsville.

Saturday's Results:

Varsity Boys: 3rd out of 11 teams

Led by Kent Ashley (17th), Royce Clary (18th) and Clayton Shaw (19th)

JV Boys: 2nd place

Led by Tyler Ecker (2nd), Abdiel Hernandez (5th), Parker Boykin (9th) and Gabriel Allison (10th).

Varsity Girls: 7th out of 10 teams

Led by Nyla Long (15th)

JV Girls:

Led by Briana Pickett (7th) and Taylor Martell (8th)

The district meet will be held in Marble Falls next Monday, October 10th.

Middle School Football

The 7th grade A team beat the Robinson Rockets 52-0 with a dominant performance by the entire team.

The 7th grade and 8th grade B teams combined to play together against Robinson on Thursday evening. The combined teams lost to Robinson 18-32.

The 8th grade A team lost 34-33 against Robinson, and it is said to be one of the best Middle School Football games seen in a long time.

The middle school teams travel Thursday to Burnet for games there.
