E. 3rd St. Buildings being Restored

From the Lampasas Heritage Foundation Inc.: We are thrilled that Lampasas native, Thomas Crawford, has purchased two fabulous historic 1800s buildings at 311 and 313 East Third Street! Both buildings hold a lot of memories for him growing up in Lampasas. In 1885, the corner building served as a barber shop while the building next to it was a hardware store with a tin shop in the back and offices on the second floor. By 1896, the corner building was extended to the back alley, with a hardware store in the front and a tin shop in the back. Needless to say, many people remember that Medinas at one point served up enchiladas here, it was a steak house, and a German restaurant. There is a lot of history to rebuild, but Thomas is starting by removing a massive amount of junk (and maybe a few treasures) from both buildings. After that he will be replacing the roof which currently allows rainwater to pour into the building followed by replacing all of the windows, most of which are broken or missing. We look forward to keeping you updated as another piece of Lampasas history comes back to life.

Coryell County Escaped Inmate Still at Large

*****CHECK YOUR CAMERAS*****

The Coryell County Sheriff's Office is asking all hunters, farmers and landowners in the Leon Junction-Flat-Oglesby-Mound area to review their game cameras for any possible sightings of escaped inmate Brandon Hogan (pictured right) and any other suspicious activity. Anyone who believes they have footage showing Hogan or activity potentially related to the ongoing search for him is asked to call the CCSO at (254) 865-7201 or 911. We will send someone to review the footage.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation during this search.

Governor Appoints Chief of School Safety

Governor Greg Abbott Monday announced John P. Scott as the new Chief of School Safety and Security within the Texas Education Agency (TEA), starting today, Monday, October 3.

Following the tragedy at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Governor Abbott directed TEA to create the position of Chief of School Safety and Security within the agency to serve as a recognized expert on school security and public safety issues and a resource to school districts and the legislature. The Chief will ensure Texas schools are implementing the school safety policies passed by the legislature and take every action possible to ensure schools are using best practices to safeguard against school shootings or other dangers.

"Protecting Texas children and making our schools safer for all are top priorities, and John Scott is uniquely qualified to help lead our efforts ensuring their (cont'd on back) safety and security in Texas schools," said Governor Abbott. "Chief Scott's wealth of experience in security and intelligence and exemplary service to our nation make him the perfect fit as the new Chief of School Safety and Security. I look forward to working with Chief Scott as we continue increasing our strong collaboration and communication among state agencies to provide a safe and secure environment for every Texas student, parent, teacher, and school faculty member."

"Both as Commissioner of Education, and as a dad, I recognize our schools must be safe for students to learn and grow," said Texas Education Agency Commissioner Mike Morath. "TEA's new Chief of School Safety and Security, John Scott, brings incredible security expertise to the role. We are grateful for Governor's Abbott's leadership on this critical issue."

"I am honored to join the Texas Education Agency in this capacity," said Chief of School Safety and Security John Scott. "I plan to work closely with partner agencies and school systems across the state to keep our students and staff safe."

Sports

Lady Badger Volleyball

The Lady Badgers won their first District game in many years tonight in 5 (25-18), (25-18), (22-25), (22-25), (15-11). Stat Leaders were: Kills- B. Pelbath- 17, M. Fletcher- 10, L. Hamill- 4. Aces-B. Pelbath-4, L. Hamill-3. Digs-B. Quarles- 32, E. Cain- 22, B. Pelbath- 20. Blocks- B. Pelbath- 3, L. Hamill- 1.

JV Lost in two- (9-25), (23-25)
Freshman lost in three- (19-25), (25-20), (11-15)
We play Marble Falls away this Friday.

Badger Tennis

Well, District Championship on the line tonight vs. Gatesville. Both teams 3-0. Both coaches knew going in that it was going to go down to the wire. AND IT DID! 9 tie breakers out of 18 matches. So half the matches.

We swept the girls doubles. But not easily. All were in tie breakers. 2 hours long.

Gatesville's top 4 boys we could not beat. They were tough.

It was a very close match, and it came down to close games. We won 6 of the 9 tie breakers. We were ahead in matches but let them come back. The kids played great and have had three of these close matches this year and the others went our way, tonight's did not.

District Standings: 1. Gatesville 2. Lampasas 3. Brownwood 4. Stephenville.

We will play Bi District on Tuesday against Krum in Glenrose at 9:30 in the morning.

If we win this one then we will play Area on Thursday TBD.
