Uvalde Hires, then Fires DPS Officer

(Texas Tribune) UVALDE — Uvalde school officials have fired a recently hired district police officer after it became public that she was one of the first state troopers to arrive at Robb Elementary on May 24, when a gunman killed 19 students and two teachers.

Elizondo, who responded to the shooting within minutes when she was a state trooper, was hired by the school district's police department after leaving her DPS job. Gov. Greg Abbott on Thursday told reporters during a campaign stop in New Braunfels that the school district asked DPS about Elizondo. Abbott said the agency told the school district that "she had actions inconsistent with training and department requirements."

It was unclear Thursday whether Elizondo was one of two DPS officers suspended with pay while the agency investigates them. DPS officials did not immediately respond to a request for comment Thursday.

In on-body camera footage on the day of the shooting, Elizondo responded to another officer who asked her if she had any children at the school: "If my son had been in there, I would not have been outside. I promise you that."

District spokesperson Anne Marie Espinoza said in a statement Thursday that, "the audio is not consistent with the district's expectations" and Elizondo "has been terminated from her position."

"We are deeply distressed by the information that was disclosed yesterday evening concerning one of our recently hired employees, Crimson Elizondo," Espinoza said. "We sincerely

Happy Birthday

Ronny Bumpus, 80
Clay Gilmore, 59

apologize to the victim's families and the greater Uvalde community for the pain that this revelation has caused."

Since the massacre, parents and relatives of the 19 children and two teachers have demanded that every officer who responded be held accountable and fired.

Sports

The Freshman Badgers improved their record to 5-1 with a 27-16 district win over the Burnet Bulldogs. The Badger offense started the game with an 8-minute drive that ended with an 18 yd touchdown pass from Calum Mitchell to Carter Toups. Sean Smith had two rushing touchdowns and Wesley Stephens had 1 to cap off the victory. Defensively Antar Chestnut, Carter Kuhn, and Jamesen Vanliew all had solid outings.

The JV won their 1st district ball game last night against Burnet 34-14. It was a huge night for the Badger defense as Matheus Sanchez had a big 4th down stop, Zion Parker had 3 interceptions and Levi Guthrie also had an interception. The Badger offense took full advantage with Luke Gutierrez scoring on a 6yd TD pass from JT Posten to start the scoring and Daemian Rivas scoring rushing TDs from 5-, 6- 10- and 2-yards respectively. The Badgers improved their overall record to 5-1 on the season.
