Kempner City Council

Kempner City Council meeting was held on Tuesday November 9th at 7p.m.

There were no Citizen Comments or any person with business that need to be brought up to the council. So the council moved on to The Public Hearing of Sylvia Tucker Memorial Park Ordinance. Judge Gene Isenhour spoke about the pros and cons of allowing folks to have their dogs in the park. It was also suggested that we might consider getting a fenced off part for people with dogs to allow their dogs a place to run freely at the park.

The City Manager gave staff reports and the police report due to the police chief being out for training. Then the fire Chief gave the fire report for the month followed by the Mayor discussing upcoming events:

- Veterans Day Ceremony, 11/11/2021 at 11 am, Sylvia Tucker Memorial Park
- Free Companion Animal Microchipping, 11/13/2021 at 10 am – 1 PM, City Hall
- Covid 19 vaccine Clinic, 11/15/2021 10 am – 7PM, Kempner Volunteer Fire Dept.
- Mayor's Merry Christmas, 12/03/2021 4 pm, Sylvia Tucker Memorial Park

Council then moved to presenting some awards to citizens that have helped out in the community this year. Among those were Jessie Dallas, Gene Isenhour, Beccs Ramirez, and Paul Miceli. There will be more to be honored in December.

Next the council moved on to action items which included Considering David Richardson for Alderman/Council Member Place 1. There was a motion to nominate Mr. Richardson to replace council seat one, which was approved. The Mayor then swore in Mr. David Richardson to council seat place 1.

Consideration of approval of 40 ft of donated fence for Sylvia Tucker Memorial Park from Habitat for Humanity (will not block access to Taylor Creek in any way) There was a motion to approve and the motion passed unanimously.

Mayor/Council Comments let it be know that he was calling a special meeting for this Friday at 6 p.m. to be held to discuss the possibility of purchasing two used police cars at a price that is a good deal for Kempner. At least four Council members must be present for this meeting and a decision must be made by Monday.

Automobile Security

The Lampasas Police Department offers some tips to Improve the security of your car windows;

Window Tint. Window tint provides a level of privacy and security.

Thieves look for crimes of opportunity-for the easy target. If they can see something of value in your vehicle they will smash your window, grab the easy to get to items and quickly flee the area. There is often cash left in vehicles, wallets, purses, phones, laptops, and recently purchased items that can all be gone in a matter of seconds. Tint makes it harder to see into the vehicle and makes the window harder to break because it also helps to hold the glass together.

Window film. Window film is very similar to window tint, but instead of just tinting the window the film reinforces and protects the window. Though the window may break the purpose of the film is to prevent it from shattering. The window will still be in place since it didn't break through and didn't shatter. The thief often gets frustrated and leaves because the easy target wasn't so easy after all.

Always make sure your windows are up all the way. While it might seem like a good idea to leave your windows down a crack, it makes the window much easier to break. It also gives thieves an easy target. They can use any open space to jimmy your vehicle lock; thereby opening the door. If your windows go up and down independently always make it a habit to check the back windows separately to make sure they are all the way up and secure.

Always remember to make sure your vehicle is not only locked but secure all the way around. It does no good to lock your doors, if you forget to put up a window or leave the windows vulnerable.

Texas Infrastructure

The White House estimates that Texas will receive about $35.44 billion over five years for roads, bridges, pipes, ports, broadband access and other projects after federal lawmakers passed a long-anticipated national infrastructure bill on Friday.

The influx of capital is set to advance existing transit plans, pay for much-needed repairs and could lay the groundwork toward increasing transportation options for Texans.

U.S. House lawmakers gave the roughly $1.2 trillion measure final approval late Friday after a series of negotiations and concessions to get the bill passed. President Joe Biden is expected to sign the bill into law soon.

"The need for action in Texas is clear," a White House fact sheet read. "For decades, infrastructure in Texas has suffered from a systemic lack of investment."

The funds expected to come to Texas were determined by the White House through the bill's state allotment formula. Texas will also have the opportunity to apply for grants in a variety of categories in addition to these funds.

It's unclear how the money will be spent or what projects it will fund at this point, but the dollars will be set aside for a variety of new and maintenance projects, from highway expansions and broadband access to modernizing public transit throughout the state.

Here is the breakdown of the funds that Texas is expected to receive based on estimates from the White House:

Federal highway programs: $26.9 billion

Public transportation: $3.3 billion

Drinking water infrastructure (and removing lead pipes): $2.9 billion

Airports: $1.2 billion

Bridge replacement and repairs: $537 million

Electric vehicle charging network: $408 million

Broadband expansion: $100 million

Wildfire protection: $53 million

Cyberattacks protection: $42 million

The White House also estimated that $3.5 billion will be invested to weatherize the country's energy infrastructure, but it wasn't immediately clear how much of that money would go to Texas or how those plans could combine with measures approved by the Texas Legislature this year in response to February's devastating winter storm.
