Coronavirus Update

COVID-19
UPDATE

Dr. Hay reported this morning that Lampasas County now has 507 total cases, 36 active cases, and 3 in the hospital at this time. The State of Texas had 8,489 new cases reported and 7,958 Texans were hospitalized as of yesterday.

Ain't life wonderful!

Ronnie Witcher

I got to wondering...

The Texas Coronavirus Recession

How has it affected the State's Budget?

Since our Texas constitution demands that our legislators can only spend as much as they make, and their income is mostly from our taxes...

Did the state's income from retail sales tax decrease?

Sure, but not that much. People still bought stuff, just not that much from small retail stores. The big box stores still did well, Online shopping ( i.e. Amazon) did even better. Home improvement stores boomed since last April. The overall sales tax in Texas seems to have decreased by only about 5%, and that is the state's biggest government income sector.

What did decrease for state government?

The oil production tax crashed – down 42% as of October.

Natural gas production tax – down 32.9%

Hotel Occupancy tax – down 33.3%

Things that didn't seem to change in the way we live are: Drinking and driving. No, not the way it sounds. It's just that we still bought cars and trucks and we still bought gas and diesel. Taxes on those purchases didn't seem to change. So we drove, though since we didn't stay in hotels as much, we evidently took short road trips.

Likewise, we still bought alcoholic beverages, just not as much in bars since they were off and on closed –but we still took six-packs and bottles of wine home with us. So, the sales tax on booze was about the same.

We're curious creatures. What will be interesting to see is, when this coronavirus pandemic is all over, how we will have changed. What businesses won't reopen? Will the online stores control most of our shopping? Will shopping malls ever come back or will local area shopping be controlled by big box stores and their strip centers?

And will the marijuana thing continue to be legalized in more states until you buy a bag in the grocery store like picking up a six-pack.

Yeh, lots to wonder about...here's hopin' they change for the better, and here's hopin' we can get that corona vaccine shot soon. We're rootin' for ya! FW

Badger Sports

Football

The undefeated Badgers are headed into the next playoff round in San Antonio on Saturday against Corpus Christi Miller.

The neutral playoff spot is the Dub Farris Athletic Complex in San Antonio. Tickets are limited, so fans at home will have to tune in to the game on KACQ-FM or online at Lampasasradio.com at the listen live icon.

Lampasas is undefeated at 9-0. Miller is 7-4. Miller does come out of that Corpus Christi area district that is pretty good, so this should be a much closer game than in the Badger's first round.

Playoff Notes

Updated information regarding the LIVE STREAM for Saturday's Football Game.

Please read the terms below;

The UIL in conjunction with NFHS Network, owns telecast rights for all playoff games. The UIL in consideration of COVID social distancing protocols limiting attendance during district play, granted a one-year exception to broadcasting rules that allowed schools to broadcast Friday night games at no cost to the viewer. NFHS Network is a subscription-based platform and local schools have no control over fees charged during playoffs. Please also be aware that you may not be able to watch the game on your TV, unless your TV has an internet connection with a web browser. But you should have no problem viewing from your smartphone/home computer/laptop/game console.

The game will be live streamed by The NFHS Network. Please be patient with the Live Streaming, this is still semi new to all of us. The LISD Administration Department and Technology work diligently to make it a smooth process.

Thank you all!! Let's support our BADGERS

Attention to those going to San Antonio on Saturday for football!! Northside ISD requires proof of Covid screening. Click on the link below and follow the prompts. At the end you should have a picture on your phone (or printed version) of the green photo shown here with a check mark. Please note that if you answer 'yes' to any of the questions you won't be given a green check. If you do not have a green check, you can't enter the game. One green check needed per family.

After clicking on the link here's what you need to do:

When prompted for user type, select ATHLETIC EVENT (competitions only)

When prompted for Athletic Acknowledgement, click ACCEPT AND CONTINUE

When asked to enter type of athletic event location, choose ATHLETIC COMPLEX

Enter your name and other info.

When choosing a location, select FARRIS STADIUM from the drop down menu

Good luck, please share, and thanks for your support

For those who can't make the game, you can listen on KACQ 101.9 or lampasasradio.com/listen live for the play-by-play from Darrell and Kenny starting with the pre-game show!
