The Weather

The High Yesterday: 61° The Low this Morning: 52°

The forecasters are saying the fog will dissipate with the passing of the cold front today, with cloudy skies this morning and clearing this afternoon. The front is expected to clear our area by the afternoon hours bringing cooler air, and a wind shift to the north. Tonight with mostly clear skies, look for a chilly night. There may be some fog tomorrow morning and once it burns off high temperatures will be near the 60° mark. The next cold front on Wednesday should be dry and feature strong gusty winds both ahead of and behind the front. This will bring much cooler air in time for Christmas.

Today: Cloudy this morning with a slight chance of showers before noon with patchy fog burning off this morning as well. Look for gradual clearing this afternoon and a high near 58°. Winds will be N-NW increasing to 10-15 mph this afternoon with possible gusts of 25 mph.

Tonight: Mostly clear and the low should be near 33°, winds will be calm.

Sunday, Sunny with a high near 65°. Winds will be W at 5 mph.

Sunday Night: Mostly clear, with a low around 35°. Wind will become calm.

Monday: Sunny, with a high near 70°. Light W-SW winds at 5 mph.

Monday Night: Mostly clear, with a low around 37° and calm winds

Coronavirus Update

Dr. Hay shared with Lampasas Radio yesterday evening that a gentleman in his 60's from Lampasas County passed away yesterday. We now have 15 total fatalities. The county now has 858 total cases, (40 more than Friday), 95 active cases (an increase of 19 from Friday), and 7 in the hospital (the same as Friday). The State of Texas recorded 12,192 new cases yesterday and 9,709 Texans are hospitalized.

2nd Round of Covid-19 Vaccine this Week

According to a story by Karen Brooks Harper in The Texas Tribune, The vaccines are expected to land at 1,100 providers in 185 Texas counties starting Monday, including smaller and rural hospitals left out of the first shipment of doses this week, state health officials said Friday. The Texas allocation of vaccines will include 159,900 doses of the Pfizer vaccine, most of them earmarked for long-term care facility residents, and 460,500 doses of the vaccine manufactured by Moderna, which won federal emergency use approval Friday and is expected to start shipping this weekend, officials said.

"Adding the Moderna vaccine will dramatically increase the amount of vaccine that can go to rural areas and smaller providers because it ships in smaller quantities and can be stored longer at regular refrigerator temperatures," said Dr. John Hellerstedt, commissioner of the Texas Department of State Health Services. "Both the Moderna and Pfizer vaccines are safe and effective — both can confer protection against COVID-19, regardless of which vaccine you receive."

A Note from The Lampasas Police Dept.

He sees you when your speeding.

He knows when you don't brake.

He knows if you've had a few,
so don't go from 0 to 0.08%.

In Texas, someone is hurt or killed in a crash involving alcohol every 20 minutes. This holiday season, (and always), don't drink and drive. You are legally intoxicated in Texas when your blood alcohol concentration reaches 0.08%. Driving impaired is against the law, if you are like many you don't need to reach 0.08% before alcohol or drugs affect your driving, flying or boating. Don't drink and drive impaired!

Before you celebrate with alcohol, plan ahead to have a designated driver or make plans to not drive if you have been drinking.

Happy Holidays, Stay Safe

Badger Sports

Lady Badger Soccer

From Coach Kiff Wiemers shared the following:

Good morning all Badger Fans, I am very happy to report a great evening of firsts. Our ladies played a fantastic game and were able to spread a lot of love on the field with a 10-0 win over Rockdale. The goals and assists are as follows:

Bella Lindsey (solo)
 Bella Lindsey/ Assist - Becca Nobles
 Nyla Long (solo) - First career goal
 Becca Nobles (solo) - First career goal
 Sara Engelke (solo)
 Sara Engelke/ Assist - Becca Nobles
 Bella Lindsey/ Assist - Nyla Long (first career hat trick)
 Bella Lindsey (solo)

Sara Engelke/ Assist - Becca Nobles
 Anna Burgess/ Assist - Brooke Coffman (first career goal)
 This was a great game that got to showcase all of these ladies hard work this season. We outshot our opponent 23-0 and were able to control the pace of play throughout the evening. I was very pleased in how we were able to spread around the wealth and get multiple people involved in the scoring. It was very nice to see so many of our athletes get their first career goals and a career hat trick. I am hoping that after a week of rest we will see this momentum carry into the start of our season against Gateway Prep on Jan 5th. Please congratulate these girls on all of their hard work and efforts as we get going into our season.
