The Weather

High yesterday was 37° The low this morning was 33° That high of 37° above was only for a minute. For all but 4 hours of the past 24 it was below 35°.

Today: Mostly cloudy with a high near 45° and calm wind becoming easterly.

Tonight: Mostly cloudy with the low dropping to about 32° overnight with slight east wind turning calm.

Friday: Mostly sunny for a change with a high near 56° in the afternoon and the calm turns to southerly wind at around 5 mph. Overnight there is a chance of drizzle after midnight and mostly cloudy skies presiding over a low around 44° and little wind.

The weekend: The Saturday forecast shows a 20% chance of a shower, cloudy skies and a high fairly pleasant at 62° at some point in the afternoon. The rain chance continues on Sunday but it turns cooler with the temperature only reaching 44° at the high as strong north wind arrives.

New Year's Eve will bring possible freezing rain and a bitter cold down to 21° with north wind that could gust to 20 mph-easily the bitterest cold we have seen this winter to date. A hard freeze will not thaw out on New Year's Day it will be in the 20s, then at the high about 30°. And, it will get even colder Monday night, down to about 18°. If it can get any worse..there will be strong north winds.

Bitter Cold On The Way

As you can see by the forecast above, we have a real "norther" on the way.

We well remember another bitter cold spell several years ago when there was a run on foam pipe insulation and tools to thaw out pipes, plastic pipe fittings to repair the pipes that had burst, etc. The stores ran low, or out, for a day or two and we found ourselves searching for supplies.

If there's anything more miserable than being out of water from frozen pipes, it's having to repair the busted plastic pipes after it all thaws out.

Word to the wise, if you have pipe in danger of freezing, start wrapping. You have just a couple of days to get ready. It is going to get serious Sunday night.

Here's another warning. It will very possibly be icy Sunday night and Monday. With some considering traveling, especially on New Year's Eve, it could be a dangerous time to be on the highway. Give it some thought and please be very careful. Have emergency supplies in your car, leave early, and drive defensively.

Financial Predictions For 2018 Are Good and Bad

The wallethub group surveyed finance experts for what they thought 2018 would bring.

1. U.S. GDP Growth Will Remain Near 2.5%
2. Unemployment Will Crack 4%
3. The S&P 500 Will Top 2,900 & Finish at 2,838
4. The Fed Will Raise Rates Three Times, Costing Borrowers Billions.
5. Credit Card Debt Will Break All-Time Records, Topping $1 Trillion Owed.
6. Consumer Credit Scores Will Peak in 2018
7. U.S. Auto Sales Will Top 17M for the 4th Straight Year.
8. Existing Home Sales will top 5M, despite higher rates.

The first three above look good for our economy, but 4 and 5 not so much. Consumer credit scores rising is good but after the peak? Number 7, auto sales up looks good, as does number 8, a good real estate market.

The Blotter

Lampasas Police Dept. blotter for Wednesday showed an arrest at 12:17am when a 24 yr old Lampasas male was picked up at FM 580E and Casbeer on a municipal warrant for possession of drug paraphernalia.

Another arrest took place at 2:51am on a traffic stop in the 1000 block of S. Key when a 48 yr old Killeen woman was arrested for possession of methamphetamine.

At 8:11am a suspicious person was reported in the 400 block of College St. and at 11:28am there was a theft report in the 1700 block of E. CTE.

There was another traffic stop arrest at 3pm in the 100 block of W. 2nd for possession of marijuana and driving with an invalid license. At 4:12pm there was a suspicious person arrest in the 700 block of S. Key.

It was quiet in the evening except for a couple of suspicious person reports. One came at 11:34 in the 100 block of E. 9th and another at 11:45, nearby in the 400 block of E. Plum.

Lampasas Sheriff's Dept. blotter shows Lometa with a couple of animal problems and Kempner had a criminal mischief report and a couple of medical calls. Out in the county, deputies worked on an identity theft case and went to Copperas Cove to serve a warrant.

The Burn Ban in Lampasas Co. has been lifted until 6pm on January 1st.

Much of what we see could also be the edge of an inflationary period with excessive debt.

What can we do about it to protect ourselves? Watch our credit card debt above all, and avoid any other high interest rate debt. If we're lucky, our homes were purchased or refinanced at the recent low interest rates.

Sports

Badger Basketball

Lady Badgers Basketball (10-12/2-1) will be back in action today. Coach Myers and the varsity girls are headed for the Troy Holiday Classic tournament that will run through Friday.

Lampasas will play Smithville at noon today, then at 6pm that evening, they'll play Lago Vista. On Friday morning at 9am our girls will play Giddings, then bracket games will begin at 3 and 6pm.

Badger Boys Basketball

Head Coach Aaron Nuckles' Varsity (13-5/1-0), will also be loading up for a holiday tournament today. The team is heading to Brownwood for a tournament that will see Lampasas opening with a game with De Leon at 4:30pm. They will probably also meet up with Dublin again. Dublin is the team they beat in the early part of the recent Hamilton tournament, but then played again in the championship and Dublin won. Go Badgers!

The Brownwood tournament will run through Saturday.

Soccer season begins on Friday, with the Lady Badgers in a scrimmage at Killeen and the Badger boys in scrimmage action at Salado. The schedule shows them playing at 10am, noon and at 4pm.

The boys JV team is scheduled to play at Salado too. Their games are at 9am, noon and 5pm.

Happy Birthday

Johnny Chadwick, Gladys Gibson,
Keith Duncan, Sydna Vineyard, Phillip Morris
