Sports

The Lady Badgers Softball Team (3-1) beat Leander Glenn 4-3 last night in a hard fought game.

Hannah Greenberg hit in the tying and winning runs in the top of the 7th to stave off Glenn's 3-2 lead and win the game after the Grizzly girls went scoreless in the bottom of the 7th.

Collyn Schuricht pitched the game for the Lady Badgers, going all 7 innings, giving up 3 runs on 6 hits, one of them a homer, and with 6 strikeouts and 2 walks.

The big hitters for Lampasas were Kyndal Moyers, going 3 for 4 with 2 RBIs, Hanna Greenberg with 2 for 4, one of them a double, and with 2 RBIs. Sloane Johnson went 2 for 4 and one hitters were Natalie Denoso and Collyn Schuricht.

Next up for the Lady Badgers is Burnet, here, on Friday.

Around the District:

Salado is 4-0, Lampasas is 3-1, Liberty Hill is 3-1 (lost to Salado 3-4) Glenn is now 2-3, Llano is 1-3, Taylor is 1-2

Burnet is 0-4 (lost to Llano 2-12)

The Badger Baseball Team (1-1) is suffering the defeat of a game they shouldn't have lost.

The Badgers lost a close one last night 7-8 to the Glenn Grizzlies. They got on the board in the first inning when Braden Terry doubled and brought in 2 runs. The Grizzlies answered with 1 run. In the second inning the Badgers added 4 as Hunter Gholson hit a single to left center scoring 2 of the runs. The Badger lead was then 6-1.

In the bottom of the 3rd Glenn added 2 runs making it a 6-3 Badger lead going into the 4th inning. The Badgers had one out and a runner on first when speedy Mason Steele hit into a fielder's choice. They took the runner advancing to second but Steele got on, then with two outs on the board, Steele steals second, then third, and took home on an error. Badgers 7 -Grizzlies 3!

Glenn scored a run in the 4th, then in the bottom of the 5th the y would score 4 runs, taking the lead for the first time in the game. 8-7. The Badgers failed to score in the last two innings, losing it 7-8.

Most of the Badgers problem was errors. According to who's scoring, there were probably about 5 recorded, but it could be seen as more. Standouts in the game for the Badgers were, once again, Hunter Gholson for his phenomenal bat – going 4 for 4; Mason
