The Weather

The High yesterday was 86° The Low this morning 58°

Today: Sunny, with a high near 90° and S-SW wind around 5 mph ...and that is a general pattern for the week.

Tonight: Mostly clear, with a low around 63° and south wind that will be 5-10 mph.

Tuesday: Another mostly sunny day with a high near 89° and S-SW wind 5-15 mph and a bit gusty at times.

Overnight Tuesday and early Wednesday morning will get down to about 63° with south wind continuing.

The rest of the Week: Wednesday will be sunny, and up to about 88°. Thursday, with a high around 86° and south wind. Friday will be more of the same and so will Saturday.

There is a chance of a weather change with some clouds on Sunday and a slight chance of rain...maybe?

Election Results

Saturday's Elections in Lampasas County resulted in another woman, Cathy Kuehne, winning a seat on Lampasas City Council. She took 195 votes in Saturday's Place 4 Election, while opposing candidate, T.J. Wright, tallied 136 votes.

This brings the gender tilt on the Lampasas Council to 4-3 in favor of the girls. It's a historical first – so far as we can tell – where there has been a majority of women serving on the Lampasas Council.

In Lometa the at-large race for two Council seats saw the incumbents Shad Hill and Larry Koch re-elected to Council while Dale Robinson and Julia Thomas will have to wait for another day as their tallies were short of the mark.

The other upcoming Election is the May 22nd Runoff. Early Voting for that one will begin on Monday, May 14th.

Today

Lampasas ISD's Board will meet at 6pm today at the school's Administration Building in a regular session.

On the agenda are a number of recognitions, including "Teacher of the Year." Along with that are some resignations and selections of professional personnel, standard reports and actions, a possible consultation with the attorney on the petition for Detachment/Annexation, and a possible discussion on security at the school.

Other Things This Week

It's Teacher Appreciation Week at the Lampasas ISD.

Some other school things that are typical of end-of-year activity include the Middle School Annual Awards Night on Tuesday and Kindergarteners and 1st graders from Taylor Creek having a Field Day on Wednesday.

The Badger Band, Middle and High School, will be in their Spring Band Concert at the High School gym at 6:30pm on Thursday.

Hanna Springs is having Kinder Graduation on Thursday and Taylor Creek's 2nd and 3rd graders are having Field Day on Thursday too.

Friday, Hanna Springs 1st and 2nd graders have Field Day and ...High School athletes head to the State Track Meet Friday and Saturday.

Kempner's City Council will meet on Tuesday at 7pm.

On their agenda is the recognition of Police Week starting on May 13th, the resignation of Yolanda Cortes Mares's resignation as Presiding Municipal Court Judge, the Mayor's recommendation of Gene Isenhour as a replacement for the Court Judge position, and the Mayor's recommendation of Don Casper as the replacement City Council member for Place #2,

Sports

Badger Track is getting ready for this week's State Track and Field Meet on Friday, May 11th – 12th at the Mike A. Myers Stadium at U.T. in Austin.

Lampasas Regional Pole Vault winner Ryan Fesler will represent Lampasas on Saturday, May 12th around 11am.

Cameron Everts will represent us in the 300M Hurdles sometime after 3pm Saturday afternoon.

Our 4X400 Relay team of Thomas Cavalieri, Luke Palacios, Ace Whitehead and Cameron Everts will also run on Saturday, sometime after 3pm in the afternoon.

Badger Tennis has eight players going to the State Tournament. That takes place on May 17-18 at Texas A&M's Tennis Center at College Station

Badger Girls Golf Freshman Leeann Parker is headed to the UIL State Tournament scheduled for May 21-22 at Slick Rock at Horseshoe Bay.

Middle School Tennis

The LMS tennis team traveled to Fredericksburg one last time this year for the district tournament.

Several of the players were away at a band event so the team was short, but..

Emma Drake finished the season with a 4th, as did Cassie Wilson and Cole Meyer in mixed doubles.

In the 8th grade competition, Abby Valdez finished 4th in singles. We finished 1st, 2nd, and 3rd in 8th grade girls doubles. The duo of Laurcey Belle Bender and Kairl Clements won district, beating teammates Keona Cartwright and Caylin Watson in the finals. Lacey Beavers and Bryli Wilson placed 3rd in doubles also. Some of the above may be doing great things at LHS next year.

Hancock Golf Course News

The Course is in great shape as it dries out from a nice May rain. Course manager, Van Berry and staff are working hard to keep it that way for what's expected to be a busy summer.

Young golfers will be on the course on May 17th for the Middle School Boys and Girls District tournament. Just a few weeks from now the Lampasas Course will be hosting its biggest, longest running and most famous event, the Annual A.C. January Memorial Day Invitational Golf Tournament. The tournament honors the long time course "Pro" and manager, A.C. January, who was himself quite a golfer in his day. However, (con't on back)

Happy Birthday

Mary Creek • Allen Erwin

(cont. from front) he was best known by locals as the father of once-famous touring pro, Don January.

This year the "Memorial" takes place Saturday, May 26th to Monday, May 28th. It will bring lots of golfers to Lampasas from all over the state.

The "League of Golf" weekly Report

It was a slow week due to rainy weather and strong winds at Hancock, but it was a week of surprises and upsets.

Joe "Friday" Bell and his trusted companion Andy "Bill Gannon" Johnson were the last undefeated team in the 20 team league. That changed on Wednesday when outlaws Billy "The Kid" Franklin and his partner "Poncho" Rosie Maldonado won the close match 1-0.

Bell and Johnson remain in 1st place in division A with 5 wins and 1 loss. In division B Shane Baxter and Doug Allen remain in first with the same record of 5 wins and 1 loss.

In other action Matt McDonald and Ed Reigal won 3-2 and Dorothy "hole in one" Leonard and Garry Spore won 1-0.

This should be a busy week for matches as the weather outlook is much better. MH
